Levy Salis is proud to announce that Jordan Steevensz will be continuing his employment at our firm as a law clerk, assisting our team of attorneys and notaries in their daily tasks working on client files. We would also like to thank Jordan for his amazing contribution, commitment and dedication to the growth of Levy Salis and for his extraordinary work as office administrator over the years.

We would like to acknowledge our gratitude for the sacrifices Jordan has made in setting aside his expertise as a law clerk and assuming the position as office administrator to ensure that our firm got the start it needed and the stability it required to reach the highest levels of expertise and client service. We are very excited to see Jordan and his renewal and wish him and everyone at Levy Salis continued success.
